The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.

If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

MRS. CHADWICK'S CAREER.

The career that led up to the death of Mrs. Chadwick in the Columbia, Ohio, prison last night is that of a woman, who, upon pure nerve alone, mulcted men out of more money than they have been swindled out of in this country since the days of the Mississippi Bubble.

At least three banks failed through the Carnegie notes she palmed upon them. Not fewer than a dozen well-established business houses went to the wall on her account. The success of more than one man and the impoverishment of probably hundreds of families may be laid at her doors.

Cassie Chadwick burst upon New York in December, 1904. Then she had been a guest at the Holland House for more than a month, living in a magnificence that astonished even the habitues of that luxurious hotel. Her servants were legion, her diamonds myriads, she brought whole coteries from Cleveland in private cars to see "Parsifal." In a month she spent $200,000.

From the Ohio city came word that her mansion on Euclid avenue was the most palatial in the west; that her husband was a society physician of international note; that their fortune ran into tens of millions.

Then, of a sudden, in the midst of this Aladdin's dream, rumors started telling of her impaired financial condition.

Mrs. Chadwick denied this with a confident smile.

She even borrowed more money and wrecked another bank. But an obscure financial man named Herbert Newton went to New York from Boston. He wanted her to make good on two notes for $190,000 which she had indorsed by subtle word of mouth. Then disaster fell like a bomb.

Out of Cleveland came the accusation that Cassie Chadwick was none other than Mme. Devere, ex-clairvoyant and hypnotist, who, born in obscurity in Canada, had been convicted of forgery there before her eighteenth birthday, had been paroled, fled, only to serve another term for the same offense in Ohio within two years.

How she cajoled aged C. P. Beckwith, of the Oberlin National Bank, until the bank was broken and he went to his grave, is well-known recent history; also how a dozen other Ohio institutions lent themselves "dry" upon her promise to pay. Complaints began coming in by the sheaf. News followed that her debts were in the millions; that she could not pay; that every note she had ever given was a forgery or unbacked.

Her last card was played when she said, "I am the daughter of Andrew Carnegie." For a day the woman triumphed through the effect of this astounding disclosure, but when Mr. Carnegie not only denied his paternity, but repudiated the notes, federal officers swooped down on her and she was haled back to Cleveland for trial.

On March 27, 1905, Judge Taylor, in that city, sentenced her to ten years and three months' imprisonment. She had been a federal prisoner ever since.

WORKING AT A DIZZY HEIGHT.

A new record for steeplejacking was made yesterday, when Ernest Cappelle climbed up the flagstaff of the Singer Building tower, New York, and clamped a gilded globe to the top of the staff, 703 feet above the ground. Thousands of people along Broadway and other down-town streets stopped to watch the daring little man as he made the perilous ascent, while thousands more viewed the novel sight from the windows of the big office buildings in the vicinity.

Cappelle made his appearance on top of the tower accompanied by an assistant, who remained at the base of the flagstaff. With the assistance of a rope which dangled from a pulley at the top of the staff Cappelle began the climb, and after several attempts finally reached the top about an hour later. The staff is 96 feet 7 inches long. Sixty-two feet 3 inches of this is above the pinnacle of the tower, while 34 feet of it is firmly supported inside. The staff is 10¾ inches in diameter at the base, 9¾ inches at the tower and 5⅝ inches at the top where Cappelle clamped the steel globe, which is 12 inches in diameter.

Working at the dizzy height Cappelle pasted gold leaf on the globe until the watching crowd below could see it glistening in the bright sunlight.

Occasionally Cappelle swayed to and fro at his work, exciting fears among the thousands of watchers that he would fall. Cappelle remained at the top of the pole for about an hour, sitting in a bo'sun's chair slung from the signal halliards.

An east wind was blowing, but apparently did not hinder the steeplejack as he worked his way slowly down the staff.

Capelle's contract, which calls for the gilding of the ball and the application of five coats of paint, makes a record in high climbing work in New York. It is said that the young man—he is scarcely more than a boy—will received $1,000 for the work. He was entirely at ease regarding the feat, and made the obvious comment that it doesn't make much difference whether it is 600 or 6,000 feet—that when a man gets up that high in the air either he stays there and does his work, or he comes down without any delay.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 11, 1907.

THE announcement that the headquarters of the republican congressional campaign committee are to be brought to Washington from New York at once is accepted as a movement in the interest of Speaker Cannon's boom for the presidency. Representative Sherman, of New York, chairman of the committee said this is not correct, but his denial is not credited. The congressional campaign committee will have no legitimate work to do until all the nominations for Congress have been made next year. The fact therefore that they intend to keep offices open and maintain the present organization is naturally taken as a clear indication that the committee expects to take a hand in the selection of delegates to the national convention. It is not, however, apparent just what it can accomplish.

IN HIS annual report to the trustees President Franklin W. Hamilton, of Tufts College, Massachusetts, declares against the system of co-education now in vogue at that institution. The fate of the department of liberal arts, he declares, depends on the immediate segregation of the men and women in the college. He expresses the opinion that ultimately every educational institution in New England where the two sexes are together in the classrooms must become a girls' college. Co-education has proved a failure almost in every instance where tried. Even Dr. Harper, of the Chicago University, who at one time was a great advocate of such education, was forced before he died to admit that it was a failure.

MR. HENRY N. PARRY and wife of Chicago, Ill., have been staying at the Eakleton Hotel for several days, says the Staunton Leader. Mr. Parry is an elderly man and has retired from business. He came to Virginia, he says, to spend the rest of his life. He is delighted with the Old Dominion and says that it must be planned after heaven itself, to be so delightful a place. He has just purchased a large farm near Bell's Valley and is now at home in the county. He says he wants to spend the remainder of his life in dear old Virginia. And why not, for "the sun shines no where quite so bright as in Virginia," and "heaven and earth seem to meet in Virginia."

A DISPATCH from New York says republicans and Hearst men have decided upon fusion. The republican vote in executive committee was 32 to 3. Hearst gets six of the eleven men on the ticket. This is what might have been expected. Mr. Hearst sees that the democrats have very properly left him, so in his endeavor to gain his own ends he has "fused" with the republicans after a very short "independent" career. As has been frequently stated an independent democrat soon becomes a republican.

MR. W. J. BRYAN declared in an interview in Cincinnati yesterday that President Roosevelt's plan for the national incorporation of railroads is the most far reaching step toward centralization of power since the days of Hamilton. And that is just the way Mr. Roosevelt would lead if he could get a sufficient number of followers.

AN American army officer makes the assertion that the Japanese could take the Philippines in ten days. And the fact that they leave them on our hands shows how hollow is the Japanese pretension of friendship toward the United States, aptly adds the Philadelphia North American.

TODAY'S Treasury statement showed receipts $2,645,327, and expenditures, $2,570,000. Truly this is a billion dollar country.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 11.

Hopeless failure to agree upon a common plan for railroad investigation and legislation marked the deliberations of the State railroad commissioners today, the last of their four days sessions. The wide divergency of views of individual commissioners was brought out in the discussion upon report of the committee on rates and rate making today. The only phase of the problem upon which the commissioners could agree was a general objection to President Roosevelt's plan of entire federal control, in place of which, apparently, each State has a plan of its own, differing from every other State. The report says in regard to railroad earnings in different districts: "This may be argued as a reason for entire federal control, something we believe to be impossible, without amending the constitution. This we do not believe the State will concede, until it is demonstrated that it is more practical than experience has yet shown it to be. There have been many general rate reductions in different States, followed by reductions on interstate traffic and, so far as we know, these have all been brought about by the affirmative action of the State authorities. So far as we are advised, we know of no general reduction due to any action by the federal authorities. We believe the best interests of the people would not be served by placing the entire responsibility for rate control in the federal government. The people desire the authority to rest as near at home as possible. The work of examining of railway accounts presents a striking example where joint authority should exist. In the case of local complaint of discrimination in interstate shipments it would seem feasible that a State commission could act as agent to take testimony and either transmit the same, or the finding of facts to the federal authorities." The association will close its convention with a report of the committee on demurrage, and the election of officers.

The Federal authorities are preparing to push the proceedings to compel E. H. Harriman to answer certain questions relating to the management of his railway system. This announcement was authorized by Attorney General Bonaparte today, following a conference with F. B. Kellogg and C. B. Morrison, special counsel of the Department of Justice, engaged in the prosecution of the Standard Oil case in New York. The conference lasted several hours. Kellogg and Morrison, at its conclusion were whirled away to the depot in a huge "Red Devil," and left for New York at 1 p. m. The attorney general authorized the further statement that matters bearing upon the Standard Oil prosecution in New York, were touched upon.

Virginia News.

The Rev. James W. Morris, D. D., now rector of Christ Church, Norfolk, Va., has accepted the call to become rector of Monumental Church, Richmond.

Frank P. Burke, former superintendent of Postal Station B, in Richmond, was yesterday indicted by the grand jury in the federal court for rifling the mails. "Rev." J. T. Hargrove, of Caroline, who is charged with using the mails to defraud, was also indicted. The alleged minister is said to have conducted a scheme whereby he got many articles for his own use and for which he failed to make any remittances. He is out on bail.

Louis Marganti and John L. Ebennack saloonkeepers, were yesterday in Richmond convicted in the United States Court of refilling bottles with whisky, which bottles bore stamps which had not been destroyed after the original contents had been removed. The men were caught by an officer of the government disguised as a tramp, who went to the places and bought liquor and had it put into bottles in the places. The men denied their guilt. They will be in court Saturday, and will be sentenced by Judge Waddill. The penalty is a fine of $50 and a year in jail, either or both, in the discretion of the judge.

It became known yesterday that a registered mail package containing $3,000, sent by the Bank of Richmond to a correspondent in North Carolina, recently, had been looted and a newspaper substituted for the bills. Government detectives have been in Richmond working on the case for the past ten days, and a suspected employe has been examined, but no arrests have been made yet. The robbery was the work of an expert, for the paper placed in the envelope was the exact weight and size of the bills that had been placed there by a bank official in the presence of a government clerk and a representative of an insurance company. The bank will not lose, as the package was fully insured.

ASKS PROTECTION.

Declaring that the Building Trades Mechanics' Council is using physical force and violence to drive away the nonunion mechanics who were imported into Washington by the Employers' Association, Secretary E. K. Hall, of the latter organization, yesterday made application to the police department for protection for the strikebreakers at work on the Reform School buildings.

Hall said that at present there were twenty bricklayees on this work, and that the labor leaders have offered every inducement to the men to have them leave Washington or join the union. This they have repeatedly refused to do, he says, and in order to put an end to the open shop, Mr. Hall declares, acts of violence are sometimes committed and non-union mechanics are continually threatened.

At Building Trades' headquarters, last night, the statement that the nonunion men were being molested was denied.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Edwin M. Watson and his wife May, on trial at Mount Holly, N. J., to answer a charge of manslaughter based on their failure to provide medical treatment for their seven year-old son Granville, who died of pneumonia on May 26, after a brief illness, were yesterday found guilty by the jury. A recommendation of mercy was made by the jury in the case. The Watsons are Christian Scientists. A physician, who was called in at the last moment to see the sick child of the accused, said his life could have been saved had he been given proper treatment. He said the Watsons had told him they were depending on a Christian Scientist from Camden to save the child's life, and that Mrs. Watson, when told the boy would die, said: "No, he won't; I am praying for his recovery." The Watsons will appeal the case.

MR. KOINER WINS.

The State board of agriculture in Richmond yesterday abolished the executive committee, created at the time of the reorganization of the department in Norfolk, naming an auditing committee in its stead. The new committee consists of the chairman, G. W. Heater, W. H. Eggborn and J. H. O. Beverly. The trouble in the department arose over the appointment, during the absence in Europe of Commissioner George W. Koiner, of E. B. Chesterman, a former clerk, to the position of secretary-treasurer, with powers coequal with those of the commissioner. Koiner, who is elected by the people, decided to dismiss Chesterman, whom he had appointed. The action of the board yesterday is a complete victory for Koiner.

Miss Ethel E. Stickley, of Woodstock, Va., had her purse stolen yesterday while riding on a New York avenue, Washington, car. Miss Stickley told the police that she was sitting on a front seat, when three men boarded the car and sat down beside her. It contained about $1.50 in change and a return ticket from Washington to Woodstock.

Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, whose amazing financial transactions culminated in the wrecking of an Oberlin, Ohio, bank, died in the women's ward at the Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary last night at 10:15 Mrs. Chadwick had been in a comatose condition many hours previous to her death and the end came peacefully. No friends or relatives waited at her bedside, only the prison physician and hospital attendants being present. Her son, Emil Hoover, had been summoned from Cleveland.

There is reason to believe, according to the police, that Philip Mastriano, the nine-year-old boy who was found strangled to death in Bridgeport, Conn., Wednesday, was murdered by kidnappers, one of whom was a woman, and that the child's death was to cover the tracks of those who had stolen him. Philip was the son of Nicholas Mastriano. The police are of the opinion that efforts were being made to extort money from the father by the Black Hand, and that when he refused to pay the kidnappers killed the child.

Purchasing Agent Trainor, of the Standard Oil, yesterday declared on the witness stand that he had never received any of the $20,000,000 paid to him, according to the Standard Oil books. Loans of over $32,000,000 made by the Standard of New York last year to "outside interests" also attracted the attention of Kellogg and he said he might call William C Rockefeller to the stand and ask him to explain them. Mr. Trainor, also said that the market price of the commodity is fixed daily by John D. Archibald,

Believing that the use of his watch and chain and $7 in cash would help to get change for a $50 bill found on the street by two strangers, in Washington, John Cunningham found that waiting is weary, and yesterday reported the matter to the police. He said that two men approached him at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and Second street. One of them explained that he had just picked up a purse containing a $50 bill. They explained that inasmuch as Cunningham had seen them pick it up, it was proper that he should share in the find. But in order to change it he was required to lend his personal property until he heard them whistle twice. He has so far not heard the whistle.

At the conclusion of the parade, accompanied by three bands, the Masons took the steamer Berkley for a trip around Norfolk harbor and Hampton Roads. After the sightseeing trip was completed the knights were landed at the Jamestown Exposition.

THE RAILROAD WINS.

In the United States court at Asheville, N. C., yesterday Judge Pritchard rendered his decision sustaining the ruling of Standing Master Montgomery, in refusing to allow the State's attorneys in the railway rate-case hearing to investigate the books of the Southern Railway prior to June 30, 1905. The court says that the exceptions to the ruling of the standing master are without merit, and are, therefore, overruled. The appeal of the defendants was argued last Saturday by counsel, and since then Judge Pritchard has had the matter under consideration.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 11.—Three Texas convicts were shot dead and seventeen wounded while attempting to escape from the penitentiary, according to the monthly report of the State Superintendent of Penitentiaries. The public had no previous knowledge of the casualties.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Right Rev. Lucian Lee Kinsolving, missionary bishop to Brazil, yesterday tendered his resignation to the House of Bishops of the General Episcopal Convention in session in Richmond when that house adopted a resolution admitting the United States of Brazil as a missionary district of the American Church. The adoption of the resolution followed the recommendation of the house committee on amendments to the constitution, which recommendation carried the acceptance of the resignation of jurisdiction by the present bishop. It was further resolved that the House of Bishops and House of Deputies conjointly elect a bishop to preside over the newly admitted territory.

The election of a bishop to preside over Brazil was inserted in the order of business of the House of Bishops for this afternoon. It was authoritatively stated that Bishop Kinsolving will succeed himself. He will also be granted the privilege of a seat in the House of Bishops, which privilege is denied him as an independent foreign bishop.

The House of Bishops passed a number of resolutions changing the boundaries of missionary districts and dioceses in the west, appointing new bishops to preside over them, and in three instances creating new missionary districts. The action of the bishops in regard to these changes is final, they being vested with this authority irrespective of the House of Deputies.

The bounds of the dioceses and districts of Laramie, Boise, Sacramento, Salt Lake and Spokane were among those changed, and the missionary district of Wyoming, which will include that entire State. Districts created were the missionary districts of Utah, Idaho, Nevada and West Colorado. The name of the missionary district of Lamarie was changed to that of Kearney, and is made to include the area formerly contained in the missionary district of Platte. The new district is relieved of the portions of Wyoming formerly contained therein. The missionary district of Spokane is relieved of portions of Idaho. Sacramento is also relieved of portions of Nevada which that district formerly contained.

Bishop Graves, in attendance upon the present session of the convention as the bishop of Laramie, has been transferred to the missionary district of Kearney. Bishop Funsten, of Boise, is made bishop of Idaho. Bishop Spalding, formerly bishop of Salt Lake, will in future be designated as the bishop of Utah. The bishops to preside over the districts of Nevada, Wyoming and West Colorado will be appointed during the present session of the House of Bishops.

In the House of Deputies, Rev. Reese F. Alsop, chairman of the committee on the admission of new dioceses, reported that his committee had favorably considered a request from the diocese of Oregon, asking that all that portion of the State east of the Cascade Mountains be admitted as a missionary district. He presented the following resolution: "Resolved, that, the House of Bishops concurring, the House of Deputies grant the petition of the diocese of Oregon and that the missionary district be accepted."

The motion was carried, but a moment later an objection was raised and the vote was reconsidered. The question as to the admission of the district was placed on the calendar and will be fully discussed at some future meeting.

In asking for the admission of the missionary district the Diocese of Oregon gave as its reasons the extent of territory contained in the district, its increasing population, the insufficient number of churches and clergymen now at work in the State, and the limited finances of the district, which required that the diocese obtain aid from the church at large.

The resolution as adopted by the bishops provides for uniting the dioceses and missionary districts of the church into provinces, as follows:

1. A province consisting of the Dioceses of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Western Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

2. A province consisting of the Dioceses of New York, Long Island, Albany, Central New York, Western New York, New Jersey and Newark, and the missionary district of Porto Rico.

3. A province consisting of the dioceses of Pennsylvania, Pittsburg, Central Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Delaware, Easton, Washington, Virginia, Southern Virginia and West Virginia.

4 A province consisting of the dioceses of North Carolina, East Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky and Lexington, of the missionary districts of Asheville and Southern Florida.

5. A province consisting of the diocese of Ohio, Southern Ohio, Indianapolis, Michigan City, Chicago, Quincy, Springfield, Michigan, Western Michigan, Marquette, Milwaukee and Fond-du-Lac.

6. A province consisting of the dioceses of Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Montana and Colorado, and of the missionary districts of Duluth, North Dakota, South Dakota, Kearney, West Colorado and Wyoming.

7. A province consisting of the dioceses of Missouri, Kansas City, Arkansas, Louisiana, Kansas, Texas, Dallas and West Texas, and of the missionary districts of New Mexico, Salina, Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

8 A province consisting of the dioceses of California, Los Angeles and Oregon, and of the missionary districts of Olympia, Spokane, Sacramento, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Arizona, Alaska, Honolulu and the Philippine Islands.

It is further provided that within three months after this canon takes effect, the senior bishop in a province shall convene the bishops of the province for the purpose of electing a primate for such terms of years as the synod may subsequently determine.

A historical mass meeting, presided over by Bishop Randolph, was held last night. Addresses were made by Bishop Nichols, of California; Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts, and Bishop Montgomery, secretary of the society for propagation of the gospel in London.

The bishops also reported that they had adopted a resolution which in effect, lamented the decrease in attendance of children at church services, exhorting clergymen everywhere to give more of their attention to this matter.

Dr. Patton, acting chairman of the committee on missions, introduced a resolution asking that the movement of the last three years in connection with the triennial thank-offering of men be continued, the offering to be presented at each general convention. The resolution was adopted.

Today the vote was taken for the preamble to the constitution by dioceses, and it was carried by a safe majority.

Next comes the question of a segregated colored church and colored bishops.

The members of the convention will go to Jamestown tomorrow where communion services will be held on the spot where Rev. Robert Hunt, chaplain of the first expedition on June 21, 1607, conducted the first celebration of the holy communion according to the rite of the Anglican Church on the American continent.

Today's Telegraphic News.

New York Republicans.

New York, Oct. 11.—Chairman Herbert Parsons of the New York republican county committee, personal representative in New York State of President Roosevelt, has the task of his career before him with a bolt in his party threatening. It was under the lash of his whip, and absolutely against the protests of a majority of the delegates to the county convention that a fusion ticket was named last night, the republicans trading M. Lynn Bruce, candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court for Maximillian Ishmen for sheriff and dividing subordinate places equally. Ishman is state chairman of the Independence League, W. R. Hearst's organization.

The Independence League got the best of the bargain, as the sheriff's office is worth $62,000 yearly while Supreme Court Justice is worth but $17,500. Today the Odell wing of the party threatens an open bolt. They declared they will vote for straight party men even though they be democrats, and insist Parsons forced the fusion movement through by declaring President Roosevelt wanted it. Parsons declines to talk other than to say his ticket will win.

Reported Bank Robbery.

Upper Sandusky, O., Oct. 11.—Call for police assistance was received this morning from Wharton, O., where, it is reported, the Wharton Bank was robbed during the night. How the safe was entered or the amount taken is not known. Bloodhounds are to be sent on the scene and a posse has been gathered to accompany the dogs on the chase.

Wharton, O., Oct. 11.—The Marshal and posse, with bloodhounds, have today trailed the men who robbed the bank here last night as far as Carey, O. The bank safe was not blown, and only a small amount of money was taken from the vault. The robbers were scared away by a night watchman, leaving their tools and explosives in the bank.

Governor Hughes at Jamestown.

Jamestown, Va., Oct. 11.—Governor Hughes and the official party from New York State are spending today inspecting the Exposition and attending a number of functions arranged in their honor. The Missouri State Commission entertained the New Yorkers at breakfast in the Missouri headquarters. Later the Governor was given a reception in the Administration building by the Daughters of the Revolution. This afternoon General Grant will place his yacht at the disposal of the party for a sea trip and permit them to inspect the warships anchored here. Tonight Governor and Mrs. Swanson, of Virginia, will entertain the New Yorkers. The party will return to New York tomorrow morning.

Woman Assaulted by Robber.

New York, Oct. 11.—Woman's weapon proved best when Miss Maria McCardle, ticket agent in an elevated station in Brooklyn, saved herself from probable death early today by screaming after she had fired three shots from a pistol without effect. A man broke into her office and struck her on the head with an iron bar. She began firing at him with her revolver. The shots went wild, and then Miss McCardle began to scream. Her cries awakened people and the man took to his heels. He was arrested and identified as Dan Murphy, a former guard in the employ of the company. Miss McCardle was taken to a hospital, the blow on her head having caused serious injury.

Accouchement in an Automobile.

Turin, Italy, Oct. 11.—With the motor car in which she was a passenger tearing down a steep hill at a sixty-mile-an-hour clip and beyond control, through a break in the mechanism, the Countess Bina Bina gave birth to twins last night. With three friends the count and countess were enjoying an automobile spin when the car became unmanagable on the crest of a hill. The brakes refused to work and the machine dashed on at terrific speed. The countess fainted from the shock. Fortunately the petroleum box was almost empty and after leaving the hill the car came to a stop without accident. The countess was hurried to a maternity hospital at Voghera where it was said today mother and children are doing well.

Philadelphian Arrested in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 11.—Badly beaten and knocked by an aggered crowd of French peasants, Charles P. Baird, of Philadelphia, a son of the manager of Baldwin Locomotive Works, was arrested charged with murder, because his automobile had killed a boy. Baird was driving his machine near Neuilly, and, endeavoring to avoid an omnibus filled with passenger, struck and killed the boy. Consul General Mason and Donald Harper, an attorney, secured Baird's release. He will be given an examination later.

Ex-President Cleveland.

New York, Oct. 11.—Former President Grover Cleveland is paying a mysterious visit to New York. Accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland he arrived last night and went to the Hotel Buckingham. He managed to dodge reporters last night and today declined to receive any one. It is believed his visit here is to consult a specialist regarding the stomach trouble which caused his recent illness. The ex-President looked badly and walked with a halting step, despite the use of a stout cane.

For failure to stop opium smoking during the six month's probationary period Prince Chuan Jai and others have been suspended from their official positions in China.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and and chilblain disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by druggists. 25c.

Crisis in Mine Workers' Union.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 11.—A crisis that may strike at the very existence of the great mine workers' organization is threatened by the fight for the place to be vacated by John Mitchell. On one side is Vice President Lewis, who, whether he likes it or not, is backed by the socialists and radicals in the organization who desire a strike. On the other side is T. D. Nicholas, president of District No. 1., probably next to Mitchell, the most popular man among the anthracite workers, and among Mitchell's friends everywhere. No other man, however, will be able to hold the friendship of the operators as Mitchell has done. And the operators believe that no other man will be able to hold the miners together as Mitchell has. That Mitchell is getting out of the organization at the critical period of its history is admitted. For the first time in the existence of the organization both bitumious and anthracite contracts expire at the same time, April 1, 1908

Death of von Buelow's Wife.

The wife of the imperial adjutant, General Adolph von Buelow, died Wednesday night under sad circumstances. The general, who has been bedridden for some time past, suffering from asthma, had a severe attack in the course of the night, and his attendants called the general's wife, who, seeing him apparently suffocating and unconscious, shrieked: "The general is dying; so am I" Frau von Buelow fell dead at her husbands bedside. He recovered consciousness later, but is in a serious condition, and has not yet been informed of his wife's death.

Smith was today forced to watch the companions of his captors blow open the local postoffice safe and make away with $1,000 in stamps, money and money orders. They then escaped in a wagon before a posse could be summoned to give chase.

St. Louis, Oct. 11.—In a raid on an alleged oleomargarine factory by government revenue officials this morning, Edward Daly, a federal officer, was shot through the breast and H. C. Moorman, owner of the suspected creamery, was shot in the groin. Both may die. No incriminating evidence was found following the excitement.

Naval Officer Sent to Asylum.

Paris, Oct. 11.—Commander John B. Briggs, U. S. N., retired, was today sent to an insane asylum until word can be had from his relatives in the United States. New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 11.—The market was in an unsettled condition all through the first hour with sharp declines and material losses in issues in which there were indications of renewed forced liquidation. At the same time other stocks in which there was a disposition to cover short contracts made moderate gains. Government bonds, twos and fours, declined 1-4, other bonds were generally lower.

A degree of demoralization prevailed in the market all through the forenoon. There were few if any buying orders on the speculative books after the first hour. Heavy covering in steel common and many other stocks is reported on the floor.

BREAKS OCEAN RECORD.

The turbine steamer Lusitania is queen of the seas. She finished her second run to New York at 1:17 o'clock this morning and anchored near the Sandy Hook lightship, waiting until sunrise before entering the harbor through the new Ambrose channel. She made the voyage from Daunts Rock across the Atlantic in four days, nineteen hours and forty minutes. Her average speed exceeds the former record of 23 58 knots an hour, held by the Kaiser Wilhelm II, of the North German Lloyd line, and her record for the trip across the ocean beats that of the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland, which crossed from Cherbourg, a much longer course, in 5 days 11 house and 54 minutes, her average speed being 23.15 knots an hour, while the average of the Lusitania's first trip, which ended at Sandy Hook September 13, was 23.01 knots an hour, or 5 days 54 minutes for the trip.

The Lusitania's first trip gave her the record for the Queenstown course, formerly held by the Lucania, of the same line, which made the voyage in 1894 in 5 days 7 hours and 28 minutes.

The Cunard line captured its first record for the voyage across the ocean when the Europa, in 1846, made the then remarkable time of 11 days 3 hours, beating the former record of the famous Great Western, made in 1838, of 14 1-2 days.

The Lusitania was docked at New York at 10 o'clock this morning. She reached Sandy Hook at 1:17 a. m. The time of the passage was 4 days 19 hours and 52 minutes.

FATHER AND SON UNITED.

Like a fairy story, or the glowing account of a poor boy's luck in a boy's weekly, George Harris, 15 years of age, is to be reunited with his wealthy father, whom he thought was dead and whom he had not seen since babyhood. From a supposed poor orphan boy he has become the heir of George Harris, a merchant, of Shenandoah, Va., and will leave his home at Hobart, Ind., to live with his father and gain a college education in the East.

The father and son were brought together through a newspaper want "ad" which appeared recently in a Chicago newspaper. The Shenandoah merchant advertised for news of his son, George Harris, and the Hobart boy answered, struck with the similarity of names. In the correspondence which followed, the father discovered that the boy was his son, for whom he had been searching for the past fourteen years.

The boy when a baby was placed in an asylum during the illness of the father, and when Harris recovered he found his child had been given into the care of strangers. He advertised for years, always hoping that some day he would find the lost baby. Young Harris has been living with Theodore Ross in the Indiana town.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant.]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

DR. BLACKFORD'S CONDITION.

The friends of Dr. L. M. Blackford, of the Episcopal High School, near Alexandria, who was injured by an automobile in front of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, Wednesday, will be pleased to hear that he is resting comfortably at Memorial Hospital. An officer of the institution said yesterday afternoon that the noted educator's condition is all that could be hoped, and that it is but a matter of a short time until he is up and around. A letter received by Dr. Blackford's son at the High School last night, stated that his father was rapidly recovering and expected to be home in a day or two.

J. H. Foster, the chauffeur who knocked Dr. Blackford down with his machine, was yesterday released from custody, it being clearly shown that he was not at fault in the accident. This action was taken at the request of Dr. Blackford, who acquitted the chauffeur of blame. There were a number of ministers who witnessed the accident, and they joined in the statement that the accident was not the fault of the driver of the automobile.

MR. BARRETT TO LECTURE.

Pursuing its plan to furnish the men of Alexandria with occasional treats in the form of stirring addresses as lectures the Presbyterian Brotherhood takes pleasure in again presenting Mr. John Barrett, who has had more experience with the foreign affairs of this country than any other man of his age in the United States. He has been Minister to four different countries. Siam, in Asia, and Argentina, Colombia, and Panama; Delegate of the United States to an International Conference; Commissioner General of Foreign Affairs of the St. Louis Exposition; now has been shown the exceptional honor of being unanimously elected director of the great International Bureau of American Republics in Washington. Mr. Barrett's subject will be "The Panama Canal—The Greatest Work on Earth," at the Second Presbyterian Church, Monday, October 14th, at 8 p. m. All men invited. Admission free.

CONCERT.

The sale of tickets for the Old Folks' Concert to be given for the benefit of Grace Church pavement fund at the Opera House, October 15th, shows that many are anxious to enjoy a pleasant evening listening to the Old Folks' Concert Company, of Washington with its forty-odd voices. A feature of the evening will be "The Book Agent" in which are shown full-size pictures of great men and the description given of them causes merriment. Also Reuben and Rachel in their "courting song." Both are artists in their line and call forth rounds of applause. See advertisement on another page of this paper.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning, that of a young man named T. A. Beauregard, who was arrested last night by Officer Young for drunken and disorderly conduct. The evidence of the officer was to the effect that the prisoner was on King street, between Royal and Pitt, endeavoring to assault every colored person who passed. The accused said he had no recollection of anything that happened last night. He was fined $5, and being unable to pay the assessment he was locked up.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

The committees on schools and finance of the City Council met last night to make arrangements for opening a night school for boys. The committee decided to ask the School Board for a room in Peabody school building and this request has been acquiesced in by a majority of the members of that board. It is the desire of those interested to open the school next Monday night if possible, and Capt. W. H. Sweeney was requested to organize the school if his other duties would permit.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen Nugent took place from St. Mary's Church this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Halbleib and the pallbearers were Messrs. Dennis and Harry Kennedy, Thomas, John J. and William Nugent and Louis Brill.

The funeral of the late Miss Emma Rebecca Gobel took place this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulla and the interment was in Bethel cemetery.

FIRE.

A small frame house, occupied by colored people, on the east side of St. Asaph street, north of the Portner Brewery, was found to be on fire between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. The whistle at the brewery sounded the alarm, and the fire department responded. The house was considerably damaged before the flames were extinguished.

RAILROAD COUNSEL.

When Mr. C. C. Carlin became a candidate for Congress he resigned the position of assistant division counsel of the Southern Railway Company and Col. Francis L. Smith was appointed to fill the vacancy. Col. Smith has now appointed Mr. R. D. Brumback local counsel for the company.

STRAY HORSE.

Some residents of north St. Asaph street were kept awake last night by a stray horse which walked leisurely up and down pavements and at times in yards. The equine, save during the time the fire was in progress, had the street to itself until about this morning.

FELL FROM TRAIN.

Eugene Fritter, an employee at the Potomac railroad yards, fell from a moving train at an early hour yesterday morning, and was painfully injured. Fritter was brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital.

The three-masted schooner Beulah-land, from Severn river with sand to the Old Dominion Glass Works, has arrived at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf.

WHY?
The opening of the Potomac Yard, the Freight Terminal of the six big railroad systems of the East and South—Pennsylvania, B. & O., Southern, C. & O., A. C. L. and S. A. L.—has made these two sub-divisions like the new railroad towns in undeveloped sections, where the growth is always very rapid and permanent. The yard and train employees need homes near their work, and houses built now can be sold quickly, or rented at a fine income on the amount invested.

A Great Roast!

Over a ton of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is roasted at a time, in a large revolving cylinder, which drops the coffee through heat again and again until each bean is uniformly roasted.

No other coffee is in sufficient demand to afford such scientific and perfect preparation.

The sales of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee exceed the sales of all other packaged coffees combined, and this scientific roasting, which no other coffee can afford, by its very magnitude, reduces our cost to a minimum, and enables us, with our other advantages, to give better value in Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee than is possible for any one else.

Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is the cheapest good coffee in the world, and the best of all for you.

OLD FRENCH MACHINERY.

That not all of the old French machinery left on the line of the Panama canal and bought by the United States as junk, is really worthless, is shown by a report just received by the isthmian canal commission. By the expenditure of $20,000 for labor and material, it is stated an old French ladder or elevator dredge, which had been lying in the Rio Grande river above La Boca, for more than twenty years, has been restored in every part, so that it is now capable of excavating 120,000 cubic yards of material per month, an amount equivalent to that removed by four 97-ton five yard steam shovels. This dredge, when in service at the La Boca entrance of the canal, will do more work than a modern dipper dredge, costing $102,500 says the report.

Another old French dredge of similar type is now being repaired in the Christobal dry dock, and will probably go into commission about the last of October.

The distilling plants now in use at Ancon Hospital, Tivoli Hotel and seven other points along the line of the canal are also part of the old French system.
